by WALTER M. BARRETT

Political precedents are certainly taking the count these days. Unless we had heard it ourselves, it would have been difficult to believe that a governor would enter a campaign involving representatives from many and varied parts of the state with varied interests at heart, classifying them all in one single group and with a unified aim. That aim, if you please, is not contrary to the political wishes of the governor, nor does it concern the interests of the various districts from where the candidates expect their support. Your assemblymen and your senators, if the governor is to have his way, must not heed the wishes of those people he proposes to represent, just so long as he sees eye to eye with the governor on his pet projects. Politics are certainly taking a funny turn these days.

Nevertheless, whether you are for or against such procedure, yours is the right to elect or defeat the men of your choice. The polls are open to all qualified to enter them, regardless of political tastes and you are wronging your candidate and aiding the opposition if you fail to exercise the great American franchise next Tuesday. Be there and vote the way you want to vote, but before you cast your ballot give some serious thought to the issues at stake. Much depends upon your choice Tuesday.

The recent visit of a state health department inspector brings again to mind a proposal long awaiting action in Nevada, Placer and El Dorado counties—that of a Tri-County Health Department under a state-approved health program. We have explained several times the value and need for such a set-up but the matter seems to lack sufficient interest in the higher places in the three counties suggested. While we have been fortunate in avoiding serious health problems thus far, we still contend that an ounce of prevention is worth a ton of cure, especially if this ounce is less expensive than our present health program.

That the residents of the North End of Lake Tahoe are alert to their possibilities and the future of the district is becoming more and more evident. Public meetings, political debates, civic movements, all designed to promote the region in a healthy, substantial way, are always cropping up and unity in purpose is making itself felt. We say more power to those earnest scrappers who know what they want and are not afraid to stand up and fight for their just rights.

Tahoe Meeting Results In L. A. McMillan Ouster

Commissioners Meet For Fish and Game Business

MILNOR TELLS STAND Successor to Executive Officer Remains To Be Named

TAHOE CITY, Aug. 22.—The California State Fish and Game Commission met at the Tahoe Community Center on Monday for their regular monthly meeting at which Executive Secretary Lester A. McMillan was ousted from his job in a "star chamber" session preceding the regular meeting.

Two hours of routine business followed with no mention made of McMillan's dismissal until Carl Johnson, representing the California Sportsmen's Council, asked the commission if McMillan's action in objecting to the use of a state boat for private use was the reason for the ouster.

Nate Milnor, president of the commission, said, "It's all a lot of baloney, arrangements for the trip were made with the governor's consent. Three commissioners attended and the only reason the others did not was that Lee Payne had a previous engagement and Germaine Bulcke was ill. The boat was run 200 miles at a cost of five cents a mile. Further, the fish and game code provides specifically that the commission inspect regularly all boats.

"Call it a joy ride if you want to but I've been on the Fish and Game Commission for a year and it's cost me thousands of dollars. The decision was unanimous and I see no reason to discuss it further."

Milnor accused McMillan of running to the newspapers with the story about the cruise which the latter denied, but said he allowed reporters to look over records he said were public.

meeting, said that he had allowed re-education in the bureau of fish conservation whose ouster came after the business session at a second executive meeting, said that had allowed reporters to go through the records and stated "I gave the information to the newspapers and I am proud I did. It shows the sportsmen of the state and the public how you are squandering and wasting their money."

Milnor said, "We've built up a $500,000 surplus fund in one year. That's how we've squandered your money."

Ed Carty, a commissioner, said he had gone out on boats four times but each time on duty. "True, I took my family with me. Nothing was said against taking them. I tended to business along with it."

McMillan made a concluding statement, saying "My duty is to the state, first, last and always—even above the commission when the commission is not right."

Richard Sachse, state director of natural resources, stated that the trip in question was made with the approval of the governor's office and the state department of finance and that McMillan had made the arrangements for it. McMillan denied any complication.

Sachse stated "It would appear that members of the state boards and commissions give up their week-ends to transact state business and shouldn't be criticized for it. This was in no sense a secret joy ride and I see nothing reprehensible in it."

No successor to McMillan was named.

DISTRICT'S AUDITOR MOVES HIS OFFICES

Harry M. Straine, public accountant who has been experting the Auburn city books and the Placer county books for the past few years has moved his Sacramento office to the Capital National Bank Building in Sacramento.

Straine has been retained in years past as auditor for the Truckee Public Utility District and his work is well known here.

BROTHER OF LOCAL OFFICIAL PASSES

Pete Robertson, 57, brother of County Supervisor Alex Robertson was accidentally shot and killed last week while inspecting some mining property 60 miles from Ely, Nev. The local man attended the funeral services and inquest held at Ely and returned home Friday.

Robertson, according to a companion who was with him at the time, was resting on a log and had the rifle at his side. In some unaccountable manner, the weapon was discharged, sending the bullet through his right side, lodging in the spine.

The deceased was a native of Butte, Mont., but was raised in the Sierra Valley where he was widely known.

Two brothers beside the local man survive. They are John of Calistoga and Frank of Santa Rosa.

KNIGHTS GIVE $50 TO RESPIRATOR FUND

The Knights of Pythias, Summit Lodge No. 54, went on record as favoring a donation of $50 to the fund now being raised for a pulmotor and respirator for the Truckee district being sponsored by the Truckee Volunteer Fire Department.

All fraternal and service groups in town have been or will be contacted in an effort to raise the remaining $400. While no personal solicitations will be made of business men and other interested persons, all voluntary donations will be appreciated.

SNIDER WARNS OF DANGER OF FIRES

Ranger H. I. Snider warns that summer residents of this and the Lake Tahoe region must place stove ashes in metal containers and use incinerators with screened tops and that all inflammable material around them is to be cleared away as fire prevention measures.

John Cox, State Line lookout fireman extinguished a camp fire on private property near Kings Beach on Sunday as it threatened to spread to the house. The party that carelessly left the blaze is being traced.

A cigarette flipped at an incinerator at Tahoe Park missed the container and started a fire in the dry grass. Surrounding buildings were protected by the forest service fire crew on August 20th.

Owners of summer property should make an effort to instruct tenants in fire prevention methods. Many incipient fires in the lake area this year have been traced to this source, said Snider.

HAZEL BROWN WEDS TAHOITE AT CARSON

Miss Hazel Brown of Pasadena, a recent summer visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Englehart, Jr., was married to Worth N. Foster, Jr., at Carson City early this month.

The couple will reside at the south end of Lake Tahoe until the close of the season and then will probably go to San Mateo for the winter.

The bride is the daughter of Arthur Brown of Los Angeles who, with his bride of a few days, is now a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Englehart, Jr.

L. R. JEFFORD TAKES INSURANCE POSITION

L. R. Jefford, of Grass Valley, has been appointed district representative for an insurance company. His territory will include Nevada and Sierra counties and northern Placer county. A resident of Grass Valley for 10 years or more, he was formerly head of the W. R. Jefford and Son Funeral Home, recently disposing of the business.

R. G. Robertson, inspector for the state health department, has been conducting an extensive survey of this region, both in Lake Tahoe and Truckee.

Three Members Of Local Board To Be Elected

Election to be Held Here On September 16 For Directors

Three members of the Truckee Sanitary board of directors will be elected at the polls here on Monday, September 16, it has been announced by G. E. Hofmann, secretary of the board.

The three officers whose terms expire are Hofmann, George Pace and H. I. Snider. The hold-over officers elected last year are F. W. Gaennie and Clair P. Goode.

The election will be held at the justice court office between the hours of 6 A. M. and 7 P. M.

August 27 is the last day on which candidates may file petitions for nomination with the clerk of the board. Write in candidates may be introduced at any time up to the day of the election.

FOREST PHOTOS SAVE A WEEK'S SURVEYING

Airplane photo prints recently provided valuable in securing rights of way for the Bear Valley-Bowman Lake road, according to Tahoe Forest officials. Ordinarily a survey would have to have been made in order to determine legal description of the land crossed. In this instance, though, several section corners had been located and "pin pricked" on the print covering the land in question. From these subdivisions were platted and compared with the ownerships status record in the Nevada City office in order to determine owners of the land who would have to be contacted for rights of way.

Forest officers estimate that this saved approximately a week of official time.

FISH LICENSE SALES SHOW BIG INCREASE

As of July 31 a report of angling license sales for the year 1940 shows an approximate increase of $25,000 over the same period in 1939, according to H. R. Dunbar, chief of the bureau of licenses of the division of fish and game.

The sale of hunting licenses and deer tags for the current year as compared to the previous year for the opening of deer hunting on August 1 was approximately 5800, the report also stated.

MAN-MADE FIRES ON DECREASE THIS YEAR

E. L. Baxter, assistant superintendent of Tahoe National Forest in charge of fire control, announced that "Co-operation on the part of the citizens using the national forest, plus a season with little wind and enforced protection agencies, so far this year has made the man-caused fires 25 per cent less than that of this time last year."

Lightening fires also have been few this year.

The season at present is the driest in four years, according to forest officials.

COUNTY BUDGET GETS SUPERVISORS' O. K.

The Nevada County board of supervisors have approved the budget for the 1940-1941 fiscal year, setting the tax rate at $1.60 per $100 valuation. The rate is six cents lower than last year.

August 20 was the time set for protests against the budget but none were filed.

POOL HALL MAKING IMPROVEMENTS HERE

Improvements this week were being made at the Spotland pool hall by the Gregory brothers who recently acquired the business from Bert T. Weeden. A new and lighter wall paper is being applied throughout and new lighting fixtures are being installed over the tables.

NINETEEN LIONS GO TO THEATER OPENING

Nineteen members of the Truckee Lions Club and their ladies Tuesday night attended a reception in Downieville marking the dedication of the new Yuba Theater recently completed by Contractor N. R. Mayfield for Vernon Shattuck of Truckee.

The local clubsters joined with the Downieville club in paying tribute to Manager and Mrs. Shattuck and F. W. Gaennie of Truckee gave a brief dedicatory address.

Following a cocktail party at the home of Editor and Mrs. Victor A. Cassidy at which Shattuck was host, the group attended a dinner and after an interesting program of talks, attended the new show. The structure won the praise of all who visited it.

From Truckee were Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck, Mr. and Mrs. Gaennie, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Dolley, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Langille, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Leitch, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Mayfield, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tonini, W. M. Englehart, Sr., W. M. Englehart, Jr., and A. Pace.

NORTH TAHOE CLUB HOLDS BUSY MEETING

KINGS BEACH, Aug. 22.—A special and spirited meeting was held by the North Tahoe Community Club at Kings Beach school Tuesday evening which was attended by 71 residents of the district who had as their guests George Geisendorfer and R. Balaban of Colfax.

The two men are seeking election as Placer county supervisor and were invited by the group to be present so that the people located some distance from the county seat would have a chance to voice their opinions and wishes concerning county roads, fire protection and other vital issues to the rapidly building community.

Questions and answers passed back forth from 7 until 11 o'clock as the members sought information of the visitors as to what can and cannot be done to make that section of Lake Tahoe a better one. The meeting was voted as having been highly instructive to all present.

Another candidate for the office who had been invited was unable to be present. H. I. Snider of Truckee was also a guest.

George Seymour presided and gave the next regular meeting date for the same place at 7 p. m. on August 28th. B. Lambert is vice president, A. Ketman, treasurer and Mrs. A. Sorenson is secretary.

MRS. WHITE SERIOUSLY ILL IN SACRAMENTO

Mrs. C. B. White, widely known Truckee matron, is waging a fight with death in a Sacramento hospital following an emergency operation performed a week ago to relieve an exploded appendix. Although in a serious condition, at the latest reports Mrs. White was believed passed the crisis.

White, a candidate for supervisor in this district, temporarily abandoned his campaign to be at the bedside of Mrs. White. He will remain in the capital until she is out of all danger.

MORE LAND GIVEN TO CHAPEL AT TAHOE

Bishop Noel Porter of the Episcopal Diocese announced the gift by Pasadena friends to the outdoor Chapel of Transfiguration, Lake Tahoe, of a piece of land 300x125 feet.

The new tract will safeguard the future growth of the work in addition to providing parking facilities for the large summer congregations.

The service last Sunday in the chapel featured two soloists, Rudolph Caffaro of Sacramento and Mrs. F. Cowan of Palo Alto. The organist was Myron Roberts of New York.

STATE'S AGED GET $5,000,000 IN JULY

Association In Brockway Meet Discuss Plans

Fish Promised For Rearing If Tahoe Group Has Tanks

PLANTINGS REPORTED Other Matters Pertaining To Welfare of Region Discussed

If the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Association will furnish the rearing ponds, the state fish and game commission will supply the fish for rearing. This was the assurance given members of the association meeting Tuesday at Brockway Hotel by Nate Milnor, wealthy Los Angeles importer and president of the commission, who attended the session.

Discussions at the meeting centered about the fish program with many suggestions and counter suggestions being offered. A committee meeting will be held soon to further discuss the proposal that Tahoe be restocked.

An encouraging note was sounded by Brian Curtis, biologist for the commission, and J. C. Lewis of the Lake Tahoe hatcheries, who reported that 3,550,000 trout measuring from three to five inches have been planted this year in the streams and lakes of the immediate area.

Proposal that chub be planted in Lake Tahoe to provide food for the jackminnow trout did not meet with the approval of Milnor and others, who pointed out that many lakes were now overstocked with chubs and that they were a nuisance and a menace.

Forest Supervisor Guerdon Ellis of the Tahoe National Forest invited the association members to join with Highway 20 Association in forming a caravan from Marysville to the Sacramento State Fair September 6. More than 2000 will be in the group, Ellis said.

Arthur S. Dudley of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce spoke briefly in offering the cooperation of his group in the work planned by the association in furthering Lake Tahoe interests.

Carl Johnson of the California Sportsmen's Council spoke in behalf of Proposition No. 8 on the November ballot for changing the fish and game commission setup.

Howard Johnson, chairman of the association's fish committee, said 50 per cent of the sportsmen of California would be represented on a petition asking the commission to restock Lake Tahoe and adjacent areas.

Captain Moran, an old-time fish expert at Tahoe, was called upon and gave instructive advice and will meet with the committee early in September to further discuss plans.

Milnor was most emphatic in his remarks and asked the association to put in black and white what was desired and present the case for the commission's decision. He suggested more work and less talk in the off-season at the lake if progress is to be marked.

Harry Comstock, host at the meeting, presided over the enthusiastic session.

MRS. HELLER TO MAKE VISIT TO LOCAL LODGE

The members will present the initiation routine for Mrs. Heller's benefit and refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

All members have been requested to attend.

SHOE ON THE OTHER FOOT

Theorists in this country have from time to time taken some pretty vigorous whacks at advertising, intimating that it places an unfair burden on the consumer. And various high officials in Washington have declared publicly that they believe government should regulate advertising by manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers; that too much money is spent for advertising; and that the cost of such advertising raises the price of goods or services.

It will be news to many readers, therefore, to learn that a brand new advertiser has now appeared in the paper match-cover field—most expensive form of advertising. The new advertiser is a branch of the Federal government itself!

Paper matches are now being distributed accompanied by this message: "KNOW YOUR MONEY. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITERS. SOUND YOUR COINS. EXAMINE YOUR BILLS.—THE U. S. SECRET SERVICE, TREASURY DEPARTMENT."

And the cost—why, that's passed along to the taxpayers!

EMPRESS IN NEW ENGLAND

It's a far cry from the pomp and ceremony of Schonbrunn, the great castle outside of Vienna where the Austrian emperor and his family spent the summer, to that simple white house on a New England village street where Zita, the last empress of that ill-fated country, and seven of her eight children have found refuge.

Even the small, twelfth century castle in the Flemish village of Steenockerzell, twelve miles from Brussels where this family of royal exiles had been living since 1929, smacked of the elegance which used to surround the Hapsburgs wherever they went. There was a moat surrounding the castle and a draw-bridge which was not lowered until a visitor's credentials had satisfied the retainer who stood guard at the medieval bridge.

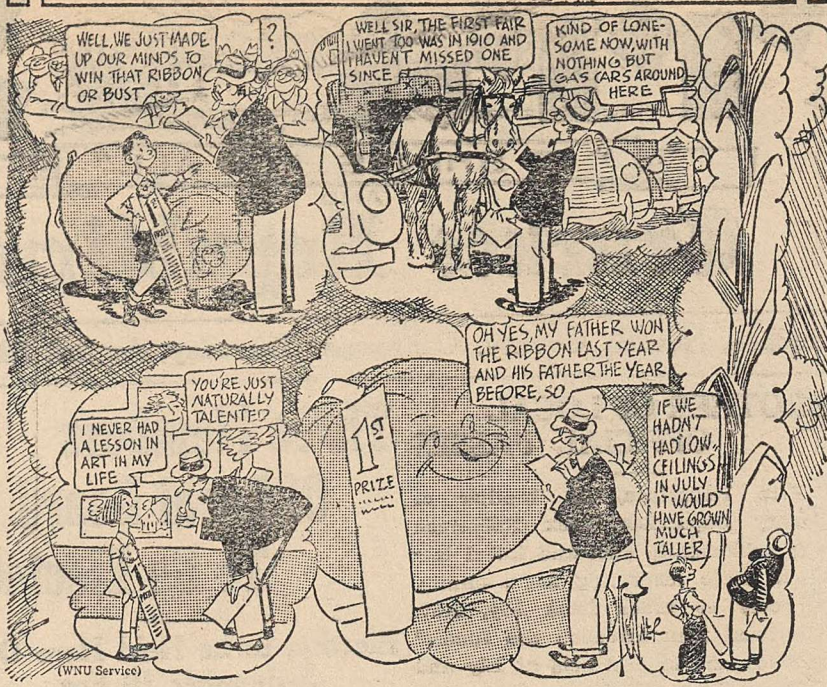

But up in Royalston, Massachusetts, only a low, white fence of wooden palings separates the last of the great Hapsburg families from the world. And the Empress Zita expects her younger children to attend American universities this fall. That will be better than private tutors, she believes. It is important for them to know the people of this country and how they live.

And what will the young exiles who have lived in precarious exile all their lives, think of a country where people say what they please no matter if they are disagreed with, where newspapers report both sides of a controversy, where young people follow their own inclinations in choosing a career?

Had the young been born 25 years earlier, being Hapsburgs they would have had unusual privileges, honor, wealth. But never would they have had such liberty as will be theirs in America where Freedom rests on a tripod of representative democracy, civil and religious liberties and free enterprise; where the individual is more important than the state.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 22 —(U.P.)—The middle of September is likely to be a busy time in Sacramento, if tentative ideas of some influential politicians to combine a special session of the legislature with the party conventions and the meetings of the state central committees.

There is a special session of the legislature scheduled for December 2 but the apparent need for more relief funds next month increases the probability that the lawmakers will be called back to Sacramento quicker. Since most of the legislators will be here anyway for the party conventions on September 19 and the state central committees the next day, it has been suggested that the legislature be called for the same period.

The interim committee on relief indicated its willingness to hold the extra session if the need were proved that present funds will run out. Auditors are checking the state's books but the committee readily admits that the current allocations were based on a 50,000 caseload, which is far below the actual relief load at this time.

The likely course of action would be for the legislature to meet briefly, possibly for only a day or two, and "unfreeze" funds earmarked for the final quarter of the year. This would permit the SRA to finance the caseload until December, possibly January, by which time the lawmakers would be coming back to tackle the subject again.

There is another little relief matter that might prove a headache. The SRA borrowed $350,000 from the state emergency fund to finance the surplus commodities food stamp plan, which loan will be paid back from some future relief appropriation. But if the rest of the emergency fund is depleted by the normal expenditures and it becomes necessary to ask the SRA for redemption, the food stamp system would be jeopardized.

The subject of relief, incidentally, has been the biggest headache to the Olson administration. Two previous administrators have been "pressured" out of office and No. 3, Sydney Rubinow, is currently engaged in an inter-

(Ed. Note: This is one of a series of short articles taken from data compiled for scenes of "America! Cavalcade of a Nation", theme spectacle of the 1940 California World's Fair.)

The first theater in the American colonies, according to historical records, was built in Williamsburg, Virginia, as early as 1722. Later in the eighteenth century, however, while the Puritans and Quakers frowned upon amusements as a temptation of Satan, gay Charleston in South Carolina became the social center in the colonies. Charleston boasted of its opera, its musical societies, its balls, its fairs and its race tracks. In 1750 from London to the colonies came a dramatic company brought to America by Lewis Hallam. For twenty years this organization entertained all the colonies outside of New England with plays by Shakespeare, Addison and Steele. Though there was little time or money, some of the colonials did seek and find entertainment.

office dispute with other administrative officials, particularly Walter Ballou, Governor Olson's assistant secretary.

Ballou has been handling the patronage end of the governor's office and admitted before the legislative relief committee that he had been instrumental in much of the SRA policy and personnel matters. He was frankly critical of Rubinow's regime, told of carrying complaints to the governor.

It is no secret that Rubinow's brush divorce of politics from the SRA stepped on some sore toes. He enforced layoff of 1300 employees, struck at Democrats and Republicans alike, particularly many of those in the upper salary brackets who had been added to the payroll for political purposes. The SRA has been the chief agency unaffected by civil service and was the administration's principal source of patronage to deserving party members.

The governor has expressed his

Every presidential campaign has its gags, of course, and The Battle of 1940 is made to order for the punsters. The latest development (just out of the dark-room) is a trick photo of President Roosevelt behind the bars. And the caption reads: "Third term, hell! I'm in for life."

The season's low for political muck-raking was achieved the other day by Redding's new left-wing daily, The Record, when it sought to besmirch the name of the late Senator John B. McColl of Redding by questioning where he had obtained his campaign funds. Johnnie, being dead, can't answer, but his deeds answer for him. Shasta Dam, which has doubled the population of Redding, is just one of Johnnie's monuments.

That Whittier Reform School scandal, precipitated because two boy inmates hanged themselves, will not only result in ousters of school officials, our spy advises. It's very likely to end in murder indictments.

Rubinow laid down the law to pressure groups and ordered his subordinates to act likewise. His frankness and directness in dealing with relief matters has been refreshing to all concerned.

The ham and eggs pension plan will come up for a third vote in California, whether in November or two years hence. The promoters qualified the plan again with the filing of 79 names for San Luis Obispo county, forcing a ballot either in November, 1942, or any special election called by the governor prior to that time.

Meanwhile, the pensioners secured a hearing before the state supreme court in their effort to get the vote on the November presidential ballot.

NEW RENO RADIO TO OPEN ON AUGUST 23

After several months of experimenting and special construction, the radio station KOH formally opens Nevada's first completely modern broadcasting plant tomorrow, August 23rd.

Begun last winter, the highly technical planning and building has resulted in a radio station that surpasses anything of comparable size on the Pacific coast. In addition to its new studios and transmitter, the Reno radio station will take the aid with increased power and a new frequency. The station's present power, 500 watts, will be doubled; and its position of the dial will be changed from 1380 to 630 kilocycles.

Coupled with KOH's other technical improvements, this should give the station about four times its present coverage, according to radio engineers. Much of the new area to be served by KOH will be receiving adequate radio service for the first time.

The new KOH transmitter, located two miles east of Sparks, includes their lakeshore home at Sunnyside to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker of Chicago.

Stories of deer being hit by cars on the Truckee-Tahoe highway keep coming in. Game Warden Bill LaMarr has been called out late at night several times to investigate but often the deer is merely wounded and makes it sway back in the hills. Caution is requested while driving this road after night.

the most up-to-date broadcast equipment available, the most spectacular of which are the two antenna towers. They soar in the air to a distance of 310 feet, spider webs of steel that are equal in height to a thirty-five story building. These modern engineering giants flash the programs on the air and into the homes of the listeners.

The programs themselves will originate in the latest type studios, housed in the new KOH radio building at 143 Stevenson Street in downtown Reno. Also within the modernistic structure are the station's offices and control room.

Along with its local productions, KOH will bring its new listeners the complete program service of the National Broadcasting Company and the Western Radio System. Now, for the first time, many Nevadans and Californians will be able to hear such news commentators as H. V. Kaltenborn, T. R. Ybarra, H. R. Baukage, Fred Bates and other European observers; and such artists as Arturo Toscanini, Josef Galichio, Charles Lindley, Harvey Harding, Carol Leighton and many others.

KOH has invited all its friends to visit the new studios and learn firsthand the many complexities of modern radio. The studio building will be open daily from 9:00 A. M. until 6:00 P. M. and the transmitter building from 7:00 A. M. until midnight.

Shipyards in the San Francisco bay area have launched three new freighters in recent months.

PAID POLITICAL AD.

PAID POLITICAL AD.

To The Voters Of The 5th Supervisorial District

Circumstances beyond my control have made it impossible for me to meet and talk with each of you, so I am taking this means of asking your consideration at the August 27th Primary Election.

As you all know, I am a candidate for election to the board of supervisors to represent the Fifth Supervisorial District. No one, I am sure, will question my ability to meet the qualifications for the office I seek. For the past 40 years I have been a resident and taxpayer of the district and in my work have been close to the heart of the region. I am thoroughly familiar with the duties required as Supervisor and I am sincere in stating that if fortunate enough in being elected I will devote my efforts and time to the betterment of THIS district.

You will agree that one of the most important problems any officer entrusted with public funds is to know that that money is handled in such a way as to do the most good. My long experience as manager of the Bank of America taught me many details in proper handling of finances and I do not hesitate to promise that I will bend every effort to see that the Fifth District receives its full share of the tax money and that it is spent wisely and with a thought only for the further development of this area.

During the past few months, or since I determined to seek the office of supervisor, I have made it a point to closely study county government, to better prepare myself for the important duties ahead. I have familiarized myself, so far as possible, with all details and feel more confident than ever that if you impose your trust in me, I can and will repay that confidence to the fullest extent.

I am asking your support only on a basis of a sincerely promised efficient, fair and unbiased administration.

The problems of the district should be problems of the supervisor, and it will be my purpose, when elected, to confer with all interests—personal and collective—and if in my power, to improve conditions—to fight vigorously for those improvements.

Sincerely, C. B. WHITE

SAFETY FIRST

Almost anyone can install electrical wiring and electrical apparatus so that they will work after a fashion. But to install them so that the greatest degree of safety will be assured, that their mechanical perfection will be realized and that the installation will be forever free from constant tinkering is another matter.

And that brings up the matter of doing electrical work in a "maybe-or-may-be-not" fashion by yourself or having it done by an expert electrician. Each year the National Board of Fire Underwriters add up thousands and thousands of dollars, needlessly destroyed by fire through well meaning but incompetent workmanship of amateur electricians. Is your home, your most valued possession, worth gambling against the few dollars charged by the master electrician or the chances of fire through amateurish workmanship?
